

Make IT Easy.

Your one stop for all business technologies: voice, data, software, security, cloud & more.

We Are a Leading, National Master Agent

TekEfficient is a national master agent - an intermediary between leading technology services providers and buyers. Since 2004, we have been the one-stop technology shop for 1000s of organizations, offering big company resources with the intimacy and commitment of a local agency.

Offering a Wide Range of Technologies

TekEfficient represents more than just telecom. Our diverse portfolio includes everything you need to power your business like software, cloud, IT services, backup & recovery and more.

Tier 1 Carrier Insiders, Back-Office Support

We know how the big service providers work having done business with them for decades. Avoid contract pitfalls and get to market faster with our expert consultants. Plus, TekEfficient back-office support handles the administrative heavy lifting.

TekEfficient Named the Top CenturyLink Partner in the Nation for Cloud Sales as Well as Hosting Sales

Increase Efficiency - Reduce IT Costs

For the past 30 years, TekEfficient IT consultants have been helping customers and partner end-users become more efficient with their use of technology. This includes starting things off with an in-depth audit of current telecom and IT operations to identify any waste, underutilization, and/or underperforming technologies.

On average, we save customers 25% off their total monthly technology spend, streamlining procurement and invoicing in the process for maximum efficiency.

Lucrative Sales Partner Program

If you are involved in the sale of telecom or technology, TekEfficient’s partner program will help you make more money than ever before while ensuring maximum customer satisfaction. Here’s how it works.

TekEfficient helps you stay focused on sales by shouldering the administrative work. Additionally, our team can help you sell new and complex offerings, removing the risk of selling something you don’t yet completely understand.

And of course, we offer all sales partners lucrative compensation and spiff pass-through to ensure you are rewarded quickly and transparently for your sales success.
